

100 That Give 100

Every day the Christian Shelter for the Homeless, Inc. provides food, housing and help for dozens of homeless people in the Cumberland Valley; people like you or I who, because of circumstance have no place they can call home. Today we're asking for your help.

To allow the shelter to continue operating and providing much needed services to folks who are really struggling with life's greatest challenges, we are prayerfully seeking "100 that give 100." We are searching for one hundred churches, civic groups, businesses and individuals who feel called to pledge $100 a month for one year to assist those in our community who need your outreach the most. This life-changing donation will provide Christian Shelter for the Homeless, Inc. with the necessary funds to serve the families and children that need us.

The Christian Shelter for the Homeless, Inc. serves 50 or more men, women and children each and every day.

Won't you please join us in assisting our brothers and sisters in need and contact the shelter today?
